Tony Abbott has made 'stopping the boats' front and centre of national politics. Tragically the ALP position of supporting offshore detention gives him a free kick. A kick that is destroying refugee lives. On Manus Island Reza Barati was murdered and over 70 brutally injured by those responsible for their safety. Detention on Nauru has led to rape, and sexual abuse of children. Offshore processing will be a central debate at this years ALP national conference July 24-26. Come to a forum specifically aimed at arming union members with arguments necessary to take on the lies about refugees. The forum will discuss what's wrong with offshore processing, what are humane alternatives and how we can win them.
