

Communiqués acknowledged by ICC re crimes against humanity, allegedly committed by Australians in positions of power, in relation to asylum seekers and refugees, mainly those in offshore ‘detention centres’

No.	ICC Reference	Author(s)	Brief background
1.	OTP-CR-174/14/001 Australia	Tracie Aylmer	Human rights advocate,
2.	OTP-CR-322/14	Andrew Wilkie Greg Barns	Australian MP (Member of Parliament) Australian barrister
3.	OTP-CR-3/16 society Victoria,	Peter Farago for the Refugee Action Collective, Victoria	RAC’s communiqué is endorsed by 57 civil groups and organizations from across Australia
4.	OTP-CR-341/16	Courtenay Barklem Tony Fisher Prof. Bill Bowring Mary Johnson Julian Burnside, QC Oliver Kidd Alison Battisson	Human Rights Committee, Law Society, UK Human Rights Committee, Law Society, UK Bar Human Rights Committee, UK Human rights attorney, California, USA Australian barrister Australian lawyer Australian lawyer
5.	OTP-CR-65/7 Global them	Stanford Law School (USA) and GLAN	Stanford’s International Human Rights and Conflict Resolution Clinic, along with the Legal Action Network, co-ordinated the input of 17 international law scholars, some of assisted by field work research students

Here, you can find the ICC submissions :
<https://australianrefugeeactionnetwork.wordpress.com/resources/>