

QANTAS STOP DEPORTATIONS TO DANGER

Let Priya, Nades & Huyen stay

This week another Tamil refugee, Thileepan, was forcibly deported and faces permanent separation from his wife and 10-month-old daughter. Priya, Nades and their children Kopica and Tharunicaa remain in detention in Melbourne. Only a final court appeal is preventing their deportation. Vietnamese asylum seeker Huyen also faces deportation and indefinite separation from her daughter Isabella and husband Paul. Join us to demand that Qantas refuse to take part in these, or any other future deportations.
