

RALLY: SIX YEARS TOO LONG CLOSE THE CAMPS BRING THEM HERE

Sat JULY 20 2pm

State Library (cnr Swanston & La Trobe)

The Coalition has presided over almost 6 years of cruelty to refugees on Manus and Nauru, including 12 deaths offshore. But the re-elected Morrison government has no mandate for refugee racism.

July 19 marks the 6th anniversary of Kevin Rudd's announcement that "any asylum seeker who arrives in Australia by boat will have no chance of being settled in Australia". Agreeing with the Liberals hurts refugees and it didn't stop Labor being defeated, then or now.

We need to take to the streets, now more than ever. We can build a movement that can get everyone off Manus & Nauru and free all the others who seek asylum here.

Post election strategy discussion for the refugee rights movement

Guest speaker
David Manne
Refugee Legal

Morrison's election is a setback for refugees, but we know that this is a government that can be fought. Morrison was forced against his wishes to get kids of Nauru. Come to a post-election strategy discussion hosted by the Refugee Action Collective, to discuss how we can strengthen the refugee movement to get everyone off Manus and Nauru and close all the camps.

We will discuss how we can respond to the re-elected Morrison government, why Morrison has no mandate for anti-refugee racism, campaign priorities and ideas, and we will be organising the July 20 Bring Them Here rally. We will also have a legal update from David Manne from Refugee Legal.

Whether you are affiliated with a refugee activist/advocacy group or you are an independent activist, you are welcome to come along with your ideas. All refugee rights supporters welcome.
